Peacemaker - The Power of Good

Peacemaker – The Power of Good is down-to-earth reasoning in a short, simple format – just like the lyrics of songs, which sends out messages of peace, freedom and harmony and aims to help break down the barriers of religious and racial intolerance.

Peacemaker

These words in Peacemaker
Are simple rhyme
Sending out help
In double quick time

To help rid the world Of all trace Of misunderstanding Because of race To be used as an aid In every state And in every land To radiate -To send thoughts of PEACE And LOVE across To stop all the hurt And stop the great loss Of lives that are taken Every single day Because the world Can't agree on a way To settle the hate Due to race and religion That forms such bitterness And division

PEACE AND LOVE

"It's not a craze it's a way of life "

Patricia Anne Rivers

How far have we come?

Here we are in the 21st century yet still there are men with primitive innate urges to kill. At first it was a means of survival, then race and religion came into it, so men had more reasons to kill.

There are many who believe that killing is an effective way of persuading others to follow their religion (belief), but the fact is, we can inflict any amount of injury and suffering for any length of time, but we can't change peoples' minds about what they truly believe history proves that. We can't change the past, but we can shape our future.

If we are ever to have peace on earth, to halt the carnage and hatred and outdated attitudes, there is only one solution — communication and reasoning. But we're not so good at communicating otherwise we wouldn't still be fighting and killing, so Peacemaker is here to make it easier. Lets have a bit of plain speaking

Peace and Love the alternative

"It's not a craze it's a way of life"

Patricia Anne Rivers

The cost of hurting others is loving oneself less

Unity

Until such time as we talk, not fight
And set aside religion
Nothing will stop the conflict and wars
Nothing can stop the division

Only when we lay down our arms
Which will cause all fighting to cease
Only when we all learn to love
Will we truly have peace

Wishful Thinking

Can we make the world perfect Can we stop all the wars? Can we stop all the hatred That causes old scores? Can we stop so much greed For material things And the worry of losing it all That it brings? Can we go back to the start When we were just kids Or back to unconsciousness Into the id? Can we learn to accept The differences there are Between peoples of all creeds Whether near or afar? Can we stop trying to change All the things we need not And start again to learn Things we've forgot? Like living together Or finding true love True love that soars high On the wings of a dove Can we?

Free Will

Whether or not there are gods
That's free will
Whether we hinder
Hurt, maim or kill
We have the free choice
To make heaven or hell
What we do with our lives To waste time or excel

So what shall we do
With our time on this earth Shall I just make this A miserable verse?
Or shall we decide what we want
Is a story
Of happiness
Peace
Truth
Love and glory?

oppressed people

I do not belong to you And you do not belong to me We all have the right To be – free

Man, woman, child, Whoever we may be Whatever colour or religion We have the right to liberty

What right do we have
To try and break a person's will?
What right do we have
To cause suffering or kill?

Physically or mentally To imprison is not right What chance do we have to love If all we do is fight?

In Black And White

There is a man called Barack Obama
Born of a black man
And a white momma
He has a vision
And sees a rebirth
Of how things can be
On this good earth

We need all the killing And fighting to cease In order to have A world filled with peace No poverty No hunger No discrimination Not just at home But in every nation A world filled with people Who are loving and meek Wanting to aid All of those who are weak A world filled with people Sowing good seed For those in the future And not fuelled by greed

He is a Leader And with this man We will succeed And say "Yes we can"

I've Gotta Plan

If I respect you And you respect me How much better This old world would be I'll tell you something 'Cos I've gotta plan Lets dump all the guns In no-man's-land Destroy all the weapons Of mass destruction Start spending the money On reconstruction No need for wars 'Cos we'll all agree On PEACE And LOVE And HARMONY

Holding Out Hands

Not fighting or hating But holding out hands Talking and listening Saying – "I understand" Living together side by side Not fearing strangers Not needing to hide Safe and secure Breaking down all the walls Of religion and colour For they are the cause Of division and hatred So the sooner we give All the good that we can In this world that we live The sooner we'll feel all the love There can be ... The sooner we'll see That it's what sets us free

In The Name Of Religion

How far have we come Since the knights on crusade In the name of religion Who sought to persuade? To persuade by killing And instilling fear It was their mission That much is clear To force every nation To follow one belief Whatever the cost Whatever the grief And what of the Saracens Forcing their will Of what they believed They had to instil? How far have we come Since the knights on crusade? What path have we chosen? What world have we made? Until men accept That they cannot change will When will they learn That it's pointless to kill?

For The Hell Of It

Hell is where their souls must hide
Hearts of stone
Deep inside
Just like a drug
Pure hate abides
Within their thoughts
Within their minds
Feeding on blood and guts and hate
Wanting to obliterate
Evil, darkness
Is their prison
Death, destruction
NIALISM

Pity them
Who think they're brave
For they are weak
And they are slaves
Until they stop
And see the light
And what is good
And what is right

racial hatred

Indefensible

According to the Ku Klux Klan It is 'whites' who are supreme Any other colour is Inferior – so it seems

But intellect has no colour And – are these the words from God? What we know with certainty is They're full of hate not love

Forgive them
For they know no better
The facts are these you see
We are all made just the same
We're one big family

Let's hope one day
They'll understand
Each and every man
The indefensible
White supremacists
Ku Klux Klan

Soldiers Nightmares

"I want to say to everyone That being a soldier is no fun When we are destroying others By killing with a gun

We cause such pain to children
Whose fathers are now dead
What we have – is blood on our hands
Which are now stained red

It returns to haunt us
Just like a bad nightmare
When we recall the fighting
By returning there

Even if we are lucky
And we're not maimed
Or killed
We find
It will hurt in other ways
By fing up our minds

It does return to haunt us
By causing mental pain
Because each night we relive it
Over
And over Again

Now I see all the horror Going round and round in my head That's why so many have killed themselves Because they'd rather be dead"

The Power Of Love

People of the world uniting To stop all wars To stop all fighting

Whatever our belief
In a god above
Working towards
Peace and love

Together as one Making our stand Joining all nations Hand in hand

Not needing to mourn For our precious sons Because in our world There will be no guns

We have the will And the strength to impart Because we have the power of love in our hearts

Children Of Love

"Please tell me, Papa
For how long
Will this war
Keep going on?
When will you close
The door on hating?
When will you stop
Retaliating?....
Is this what our god wants
Up above?....

When will you teach us How to love?

When will you take Away our fears? When will we stop The floods of tears? When will you start To make amends? When will all people Be our friends?

Papa ----- when ?"

Take Your Pick

Some MORMONS believe In having lots of wives Some MUSLIMS believe In taking lives Many CHRISTIANS believe in Immaculate Conception And we're all free To accept or reject them There are HINDUS and CATHOLICS And many many more Lots of new ones By the score But we are free not to Follow anyone And free to believe In PEACE and LOVE

It's what we believe that makes us what we are

Peace And Love (PAL)

Belief in peace Belief in love Whatever there may be above

Belief that we should all be free To talk and live In harmony

Belief to have an onward quest By giving more And taking less

Belief to have Just what we need And not to worship Selfish greed

Belief that we Will do our best To lay all ills Of past to rest

Do you believe in angels?

Wonderful Angel

You light up my life, every corner of my being Releasing my spirit, gently and feeling The joy that's within me, that I could not see The love that is needed For it's love that's the key: The key to the door of my heart and my mind Now I see clearly, but before, I was blind Giving me purpose, now I'm not alone Showing the way To contentment and home Lifting me up to the light with your wings Guiding me through – now my heart – How it sings! Removing all sadness so that I rise above Because what we all need Is to know we are loved

Speaking out for the peaceful majority

Way way back in history in the Middle Ages, during the 11th to 14th centuries, the Holy Wars between Christians and Muslims raged Fast forward hundreds of years – many wars, much blood thirsty fighting and killing, torture and rape - due in no small part to religious or racial cleansing or psychopathic megalomaniacs, we arrive in the 21st century.

What else has happened in all that time? Mammoth advancements in the sciences and technology, education and living standards. Many of us throughout the world have become civilised. Many of us, the majority of us in fact, are peace loving. Yet despite history, the lessons of war have not been learnt by all, because there still exists a minority who believe that fighting and killing, violence and terrorising are ways of convincing people to follow their convictions. Just like their predecessors, there are those who believe that their religion is the right and only religion (belief) to follow, that women are inferior to men and shouldn't be educated and should be regarded as little more than chattels. That it is acceptable to abuse and rape them and racial and sexual discrimination is acceptable too. This minority, just as in centuries past, are intent on control, even world domination. Unlike the peaceful majority who are happy to co-exist.

Why in the 21st century do we still have wars? Why do we still have dictators? Why is there still communism in the world – rulers who say – you are not free to live as you choose? Why do religious fundamentalists still spread fear and wreak havoc throughout society? Because not enough of the peaceful majority speak out – so, in effect, we are partly to blame – partly to blame because of our silence. And so, the bullies win.

Sadly, Superman is not going to zoom into outer space and heal the world for us. But d'you know what? We have the power - the power of good within us. So, the question we need to ask ourselves is - how much do I care? Are we going to get off the fence and say what needs to be said? The choice is ours.

In The Name of Peace Peacemaker – Its role in society

Peace on earth - is it just an impossible dream? Why are there people in the 21st century who still want to fight and kill - for a belief? Why are there still people who want to fight and kill – nialism? Proof that primitive men still exist, creating fear and spreading hatred and devastation wherever they go.

Stuck in the past

Barely a week goes by that we don't read or hear about religious fundamentalists actions to further world domination, using intimidation and violence. But why? Because they continue to perpetuate misconceptions that have been handed down through countless generations and which has left them stuck, quite literally, in the past. Blindly accepting without question without rationalising without proof. Becoming brainwashed and incapable of independent thought.

Fortunately there are many of us who have reasoned away outdated beliefs and attitudes. We peace loving souls don't want wars, don't want confrontation and are prepared to co-exist. Even if we can't forget the past, at least we can forgive and move forward.

In the name of Peace

Peacemaker – The Power of Good is here for all who want to stand up in the name of Peace, to counteract the beliefs of religious fundamentalists and racial intolerance – not with physical confrontation, not with threats or violence – but with simple words and down-to-earth reasoning. Simple words which they too, could understand. Peacemaker aims to help create lasting peace in the world to stabilise society and to heal the hurt with tolerance and forgiveness and love.

Are you going to sit back and let religious and racial intolerance divide us until the end of time? The choice is yours.

PAX VOBISCUM (peace be with you)

PRIMITIVE MAN

The fighting man

primitive: crude, uncivilised

- Lives in the past and has outdated attitudes
- Prefers conflict fighting, killing, maiming, terrorising, intimidating rather than talking
- Wants everyone to hold his religious beliefs, if he has any
- Regards anyone who doesn't have the same beliefs and opinions as himself, as enemies
- Wants to rape and control women and for them to fear him
- Does not regard everyone as equal and believes it is acceptable to discriminate

UBERSEXUAL MAN

The refined thinking man

ubersexual: exhibiting traditional, masculine qualities as well as the caring nature of the New Man

- Lives in the here and now
- o Talks and reasons, does not want to fight

- Accepts that we should all be free to hold whatever belief we choose, unless it is harmful
- Wants to live in peace and harmony
- o Treats women with respect and does not condone the sexual abuse or rape of any child or adult, male or female, whether married or single
- o Believes we are all equal

"Paradise on earth
you don't have to die for it "

Patricia Anne Rivers

Holding out the olive branch

Religious and racial intolerance have divided mankind for centuries. There is, however, something we can ALL believe in:

The Power of Good

Peacemaker is the key to peace, love and freedom in the shortest, simplest form of reasoning

It's plain down-to-earth common sense.
